

Savannah Cultural Festival Press Release

Savannah, we heard you! The 2nd Savannah Cultural Festival is coming back to Kehoe Iron Works at Trustee's Garden on Sunday, September 1st, 2024, from 12 pm to 6 pm. This free event is sponsored by the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Disabilities (DBHDD) and hosted by Pillars Initiative. We are excited to collaborate with a number of local community partners to make this event even bigger and better than last year. We are thrilled to return to Savannah to continue to celebrate the area's unique and diverse heritage.

This year, the festival will feature live cultural performances, a special panel discussion on community connection, and a variety of local food trucks and vendor booths. Enjoy a wide range of activities for all ages, including a kid zone with inflatables, a 360 photobooth, raffles, and prizes throughout the day. Our wellness area will offer free meditation sessions, sound baths, yoga, and more on a first-come, first-served basis to promote holistic well-being.

Stay tuned for more information on how you can attend this free event and secure your free vendor or food truck space by applying on our website. Additional details on the Savannah Cultural Festival and other stops on our Connecting Georgia Tour can be found at connectinggeorgia.org.
