

Albany Cultural Festival Press Release

Albany, are you ready for a day full of culture, fun, and community connection? Get excited for the Albany Cultural Festival, a free event hosted by Pillars Initiative and sponsored by the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Disabilities (DBHDD). Join us on Saturday, November 9th, 2024, from 1:00 PM to 5:00 PM at the Albany Civic Center (100 W Oglethorpe Blvd, Albany, GA 31701) for an unforgettable experience celebrating the vibrant diversity of Albany!

This event will showcase live cultural performances, featuring local talent and a special panel discussion focused on community connection and well-being. Enjoy a wide variety of local food trucks and community vendors, offering everything from delicious treats to handcrafted goods.

The festival will offer something for everyone, with a Kid Zone featuring inflatables, a Teen Corner packed with activities just for teens, and family-friendly fun like a 360 photobooth, exciting raffles, and prizes throughout the day. Be sure to visit our Wellness Tent, where we'll be offering free chair massages, guided meditation, and sound baths to help you relax and recharge.

Don't miss out on this opportunity to connect with your community, explore diverse cultures, and enjoy a day of entertainment, food, and wellness. Interested in becoming a vendor or bringing your food truck? Apply for your free space on our website!
